

Thank you for your interest in experiencing this book with us. We are so excited you're here!

Jennifer De Leon's Don't Ask Me Where I'm From is a story about a Latinx girl who is contending with the rewards and challenges of transitioning from her diverse public high school in Boston to a predominantly white school through her participation in the METCO program. The story also delves into teenage relationships, immigration, code switching and racism in education.

Here is what you need to do:

1. Register in advance for our book talk with the author on February 25 at 6pm.
2. Get a book:
 - ★ Let us know if you need to borrow a book by filling out this survey.
 - ★ Purchase a book from a small, locally owned bookstore.
 - ★ Borrow a book from your local library.
 - ★ Download a book on Audible, Overdrive etc.
3. Check out these fun, book-related activities.